STABBING AT LUAA

Native Row in Manoa Valley Last Night.

According to a report brought to the police station at twelve thirty o'clock this morning a luau held up Manoa valley last night nearly resulted in a murder.

A native man and woman arrived at the station and stated that during a luau a great deal of beer and wine had been consumed. Arguments started between the drinkers and one native rushed at another with a knife. The victim tried to grab the knife and had his hands badly cut in doing so while one stab plowed a furrow in his cheek.

The native who did the stabbing then left the luau and went to his home about a quarter of a mile away.

The two persons started to town to notify the police while another native shadowed the man who had done the stabbing with the intention of keeping track of him until the police should arrive on the scene.

When the police arrived on the scene they found that the man had not been severely injured and that his assailant had gone to the top of the valley and disappeared.

ADVENTURES OF AMERICAN PIRATES

Senior Constabulary Inspector Hermann, of Cagayan, Mindanao, P. I., with Supply Officer Johnson, on the 6th inst., pirated the 37-ton steamer Victoria, taking three native soldiers, and forced the captain to put out to sea. The Victoria then halted a coasting steamer, filled her bunkers, and landed a party on the coast at night to search for wood and water; one soldier escaped and gave the alarm. Both the officials concerned were short of Government funds, aggregating $6,000. The Victoria returned to Mindanao at midnight on the 9th inst., both boat and crew being intact. The captain states that the pirates intended to go to the Cagayan Islands, in the Sulu Sea, after loading wood and water. But the crew contrived to change the Victoria's course and ran her aground at Bayanan, on the eastern coast of Negros, then telling the pirates that it would require several days to repair the ship. The pirates thereupon landed a native boat with supplies, arms and money, and headed for the west coast of Negros, intending to penetrate the mountains. The captain refloated the Victoria and returned to Mindanao. Meanwhile Admiral Stirling sent his son, Flag-Lieutenant Stirling, in command of a gunboat fleet of eight to search the seas; but a Filipino crew of six men, navigating a boat in the direction of the Cagayan, fell in with and attacked the pirates off the Negros coast at night. Immediately killing Johnson and wounding Hermann and a deserter Fuentes, who was accompanying them. Hermann fought savagely and killed four of the Filipinos in a hand-to-hand struggle in the small boat. The two remaining Filipinos, covered with blood, were thrown overboard. Hermann stopped the blood from his wound and sailed for the shore, abandoned the boat, and escaped to the mountains. On the 10th inst., the Constabulary patrol recovered the boat, containing a rifle, some revolvers, a portion of the missing money, and found also Johnson's body, surrounded by those of the dead sailors, and close by Fuentes, still alive. It is expected that Hermann will be captured promptly unless he joins some party of ladrones. Japan Mail.
